James William Clyde was born in Heber, Utah, on August 1, 1871, sons of George William Clyde. At the age of 14 he went with his parents to Heber, where he was educated, married, and raised a family.

James W. Clyde was one of the pioneers in the affairs and educational progress of our history. He was the first president of the Heber Town Board, and Mr. Clyde was the first mayor when Heber was incorporated as a city. He was the first president of the Heber Town Board. When the town was incorporated, he served as its first mayor. While mayor, he purchased the generating equipment for the municipal power plant, and was active in promoting a municipal water system to replace wells.

He served as president of the Wasatch Irrigation Co., of the Strawberry Grazing Co., and of the Wasatch County School Board.

Active in politics—he was often called "Mr. Democrat"—he served in the House of Representatives, was chairman of the Democratic Party in Wasatch County, and was also state senator from Wasatch County. He was a member of the State Land Board.

He was a member of the State Land Board.
